

Memorandum of Understanding

NORTH AMERICAN
MEAT INSTITUTE

BRITISH MEAT PROCESSORS ASSOCIATION

The British Meat Processors Association (BMPA) and the North American Meat Institute (Meat Institute) and their respective members encounter and address many common regulatory, scientific, trade, legislative, and public affairs issues and challenges. The British Meat Processors Association and the Meat Institute agree to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) effective February 1, 2020.

Both organizations will extend invitations and member discount rates to the other's conferences, workshops, and other educational meetings and both organizations will help promote those events.

The British Meat Processors Association and the Meat Institute will share information that is not subject to a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement with their respective governments with the other concerning regulatory, scientific, legislative, and international developments that affect the other organization's members and disseminate that information, as appropriate.

Both organizations will discuss periodically, and as needed, other mechanisms that would mutually benefit each organization's members.

This MOU is effective February 1, 2020, through January 31, 2021, and will automatically renew for one (1) year terms (additional terms) thereafter beginning February 1, 2020. This MOU may be modified only by writing that refers to this MOU and is signed by both parties. This MOU may be terminated, with or without cause, with 45 days prior written notice by either party.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Warren Panico", written over a horizontal line.

Warren Panico, Chairman

North American Meat Institute

Date:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "N.P. Allen", written over a horizontal line.

Nick Allen, Chief Executive

British Meat Processors Association

Date: 28.01.2020